

INSPIRATIONAL MOMENT #3-83

Thought: Being Certain in your Uncertainty

Special Reading: Psalm 24, Psalm 34

Scripture: Malachi 3:6- For I am the Lord, I change not;...

Joshua 1:9- Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; Be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

As we move through life, I challenge you to be certain in your uncertainty. The pendulum of time can change in a moment. What you thought, what you dreamed, where you were traveling, walking, all can change without notice. We control nothing. The times we live in are so full of uncertainty. Look around, wars, rumors of wars, job no jobs, terrorism, and financial lack, much uncertainty is on the horizon. But I say to you be certain in your uncertainty.

First, we can be assured that God still reigns. For Jesus tells us in Revelations 22:13, “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Oh, we have the assurance that the God of yesterday is the same God today and forever. Oh, can’t you see all our needs are met in Christ. (See Philip 4:6, 13, and 19). No matter what comes, we have his word that he is an unchanging God. We can be certain in our uncertainty. We are not alone. This God we serve promised never to leave us. (See Hebrew 13:5)

I encourage you to hold on to your faith, don’t let go, despite how difficult it may seem. I challenge you to remember who you are and whose you are. We belong to Jesus. He is our Father. We are his children; the children of God. (See 1 John 3:12).

Prayer: Holy Father thank you for the love you’re given each of us. A love that passes all understanding; a love that looks beyond our faults, a love that knows just how much we can bear. This is a love that remains even when we turn from you; you remain with outstretched arms just for all, each of us; that’s you and me. Oh Lord, help us stand on your promises, unafraid, steadfast and unmovable. Help us trust you in all things. Yes Lord, we are certain in our uncertainty that Jesus is Lord, and he will see us through. This prayer I pray in Jesus’ name. Amen

Rachel Addison Ministries
P.O.Box 35480
Fayetteville, NC 28303