THOUGHT: The Walk of Faith

Scripture: 2 Corinthian 5:7- For we walk by faith, not by sight

Romans 10:17- So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Mark 11:22- And Jesus answering said unto them, Have faith in God.

There is a song “We’ve come this far by Faith leaning on the Lord. Trusting in his holy word; He’s never failed me yet. Oh, I Can’t turn around, I’ve come this far by faith” Faith is a force that propels, shoves, pushes one to move on, to continue to go forward. Faith strengthens one with determination, and absolute trust in God. Faith keeps one grounded despite the weather, despite the pain, despite the uncertainty of the unfolding events of life. Faith becomes the rock on which one stands leaning and depending on Jesus.

Jesus the Son of the Living God. Jesus the Great I Am. Jesus the Almighty One; my Lord and My All. Faith is the motivating factor that guides and keeps one no matter what storms may come. And when the shadows of life creep our way, with arms of despair threatening to pull one down; Faith becomes the anchor that holds one firm. Faith keeps your mind fixed and wrapped up in the things of God. Faith draws one to allow the Holy Spirit to take charge, to lead and guide us in all things. Faith becomes the footboard of life.

As long as we take the Walk of Faith in Jesus Christ, our journey in life will be sure, for heaven will be our home.

The Walk of Faith, it’s ours by the gift and grace of God (See John 3:16). Take the Walk you won’t regret it.
