

Inspirational Moment #4-126

written 9-19-2004

revised 3-29-2007

Thought: The Discipline of Prayer

Special reading: Matthew 6th Chapter

Prayer is the life line to Jesus Christ.

Prayer keeps you focused on the all-knowing mind of Christ.

Prayer keeps you humble and ready to be used by God.

Prayer provides the communication and fellowship with the living God.

Prayer opens the windows of Heaven such that God hears you when you pray.

Prayer brings one into the presence of God.

Prayer is the blood that sustains you in this Christian walk.

Prayer bathes you with a will for service.

Prayer ensures your direction for life is God driven.

Prayer solidifies your stand on Christ the solid rock.

Prayer lifts your very being into the realm of Glory, where all your help comes from.

Prayer is the key to a balanced Christian life.

Prayer is your telephone line to Glory

Prayer keeps you connected to the one and only living, sovereign God, the God of Moses, the God of Jacob, the God who is more than enough.

Prayer is the life line to all who desire heaven as their home.

I challenge you to begin to build your prayer life right now. Pray in the morning. Pray at noon time. Pray in the evening. Pray in the night hours. Pray all the time. Thessalonians 5:17, Pray without ceasing.

You are commanded to pray. So do it.

Prayer: Holy Father help us as we pray. Give us the words, touch our hearts that we have that servant's heart, a heart willing to give of ourselves all in serving you; in Jesus name. Amen

Rachel Addison Ministries
PO Box 35480
Fayetteville, NC 28303