

INSPIRATIONAL MOMENT #2-73

Thought: Do You Know Where you're Going? And Do You Want to Go There?

written 6-2-2002, revised 7-2007

Scripture: Joshua 24:15.....choose ye this day whom ye will serve;.....but as for me and my House we will serve the Lord.

Life is full of choices. Everyday we choose what to wear, when to get up , whether to go to work or not, if we go to church. We make choices about our lives each and every day. But the question I want you to consider is; do you know where you're going? I want you who know the Lord as your Savior to think about your life style, and what you are doing. Consider the impact of what you do and how it affects others. Have you looked down the road and counted the cost?

If you love the Lord you know where you are going; but do you really want to go there? To go where Jesus is requires that one be like him. That means you've got to love the unlovable, speak love, walk love, demonstrate love in all that you do. If you find yourself causing pain in others, tearing them down with the words you speak, thinking evil about them, sowing seeds of confusion and doubt; you are going the wrong way. Do you know where you're going?

Remember just because you said yes to the Lord, that alone does not mean heaven will be your home. The scriptures tell us that on that Day of Judgment every knee must bow and acknowledge that Jesus is Lord. But it also states that there will be those to whom the Lord says depart from me, I never knew you. Do you know where you're going? And do you want to go there?

Prayer: My God , My Father protect me I pray. Lord I want heaven to be my home. I don't want to be lost. I want to walk with you Lord. Help me to remember you have ordered my steps. All that I am and ever hope to be I owe to the Lord. Search me Lord, prepare me that I show Love in all I do. Help me to reach out to others regardless of race, religious, age, culture help us to reflect your love toward all we meet . In Jesus name I pray. Amen
