Thought: Where Is Your Best?

written 1-16-2004

Special Reading: Colossians 3rd Chapter

Scripture: Colossians 3: 17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. (KJV)

As you enter 2004, a new year, a year of new beginnings, I encourage you to ponder this thought; Where is your best? What do you spend your time doing? Where do you put most of your effort and energies? Are you giving the Lord your best? I marvel at champions. They do what ever it takes to reach their goals. They work day and night, hour-by-hour, minute-by-minute, doing what's needed to prepare to reach that height of being the best.

But what about you and me? Where do we spend our day and nights when it comes to the things of God? Are we preparing ourselves to be the best we can be for Christ? This year 2004 is the crossroads; we must step up to the plate and give our best to God's business. This new season in our lives comes with the promise of great blessings. Are you ready to receive what God has for you? The challenge of the hour is to wake up, stand up, and move out in the power of God's might. Follow God's plan for your life as he has revealed it to you. How can you know his plan? Because you have wrapped yourself up in his word, day and night and thus received his revelation for your life. (Joshua 1:9)

Prayer: Oh, Holy Father, I humble myself before thee. Thanking you for this mind to serve thee. Lord keep me steadfast in your word that I walk forward in what you have for me. Lord I desire to give you my best all that I am belongs to thee. I come before thee crying take all of me Lord that I might serve thee now and forever. Amen
